

2009 UNIVERSITY OF SCOUTING CLASSES AS OF 1/22/2009

2009 College of Cub Scouting (Open to all Scouters)

Course Number	Course Title	Course Description	1st AM	2nd AM	Lunch	1st PM	2nd PM
CS-1101	Tiger Cub Den Leader Specific Training	Provides the new Tiger Cub Den Leader with the knowledge, skills, and enthusiasm to be successful. Get off on the right foot with your Den! Keeping their Attention equals Retention. Taught by experienced veterans. Required for new Tiger Cub Leaders.
CS-1102	Cub Scout Den Leader Specific Training	Provides Cub Scout Den Leaders with the knowledge, skills, and enthusiasm to be successful. Taught by experienced veterans. How to keep 2nd and 3rd grade Wolves and Bears involved in Scouting. Required for new Den Leaders.
CS-1103	Webelos Den Leader Specific Training	Provides the new Webelos Den Leader with the knowledge, skills, and enthusiasm to be successful. Webelos and the Arrow of Light are the cap-stone of the Cub Scouting program, and getting them ready to be Boy Scouts is very important. Required for new Webelos Den Leaders. Taught by experienced veterans.
CS-1104	Cubmaster and Assistant Cubmaster Specific Training	Provides the new Cubmasters with the knowledge, skills, and enthusiasm to be successful. Learn how to keep your Pack energized and moving ahead. Taught by experienced veterans. Required for new Cubmasters.
CS-1105	Pack Committee Member Specific Training	The various and necessary Pack Committee positions will be examined, along with the responsibilities of each; plus Treasurer's bookkeeping methods.
CS-1111	Cub Scout Parental Involvement	Learn how to get the parents involved in your Pack and how to recruit and retain adult volunteer leaders. After all, Cub Scouting IS a family activity. The more, the merrier! (And the less work for individual leaders!)
CS-1112	Cub Scout Advancement	New Cub Scout Leaders who want to become more knowledgeable about Wolf, Bear and Webelos advancement, this is the place. What the requirements are, how to encourage the cubs and their parents, how to keep track and report it so the boys get the awards as soon as earned.
CS-1113	Pinewood Derby	Learn how to host a Pinewood Derby Workshop to help Scouts and their parents get geared up for the your Pinewood Derby using hands-on, useful instruction.
CS-1114	Webelos to Boy Scout Transition	How to get your Webelos ready for Boy Scouts. Help them get ready to go from Cub Scouts where things are done for them to Boy Scouts where they have to do more for themselves.
CS-1115	Putting Pizzazz in Cub Scouting	Fun! Excitement! Style! Give your meetings pizzazz! Give new life to Pack meetings and campfires with simple cheers, songs, stunts, skits, and more using easy props that require little time and preparation. Great games you can play with your Den and at Pack Meetings. We'll show you the ingredients of a successful Den game chest. Put more fun in your meetings!
CS-1116	Pack and Family Camping	Taking your Cub Scouts camping? Learn the do's and don'ts when you are camping with your Cub Scouts.
CS-1117	Whittlin' Chip & Knife Safety	Learn about the care and handling of pocket knives, the requirements of the whittle' chip, and simple carving ideas to introduce the fun of whittling to your Scouts.

2009 College of Boy Scouting (Open to all Scouters)

Course Number	Course Title	Course Description	1st AM	2nd AM	Lunch	1st PM	2nd PM
BS-1101	Canoe Programs for Boy Scouts	Provides information on how to canoe with a Troop including discussions about gear, safe water principles and how to transport for a multi-day trek. This course is not meant to replace Safety Afloat or Safe Swimming Defense!
BS-1102	Life to Eagle	This course provides guidelines and instructions on the process for successfully getting Boy Scouts through the 'FUMES' and progressing from Life to Eagle. THIS COURSE IS NOT INTENDED FOR SCOUTS- LEADERS ONLY.
BS-1103	Conducting High Adventure Programs	Whether your Scouts attend Philmont, Northern Tier, Seabase, or a Troop-specific high adventure program, the information from this course will help you with all aspects from ideas, to planning and execution. A must-attend for Troops wishing to start High Adventure programs!
BS-1104	Backpacking with the Scouts	Backpacking has a specific set of skills, and this course will help Scout Leaders to prepare themselves as well as the Troop for a Backpacking excursion. Gear, planning and duty rosters and good backpacking principles will be discussed.
BS-1105	Troop Chaplains and Religious Emblems	Troop Chaplains and Chaplain's Aids are a sometimes under-utilized Troop resource. This course will discuss how to incorporate 'Duty to God' into your annual program, and the benefits that can be realized by following the religious emblem program.
BS-1106	Out of Council Trips	Learn how to plan and execute an out of council trip. You will discuss everything from planning to transporting and where to find places to stay. This is a must for those who wish to conduct multi-day touring trips!
BS-1107	Conservation Awards	Go Green with your Scouts! Learn how to help them earn one of the many different conservation awards that are available.
BS-1108	Merit Badge Counselor Training	Learn the proper way to conduct Merit Badge Counselor Training for your Troop, and get yourself trained as well!
BS-1109	Flag Etiquette	Flag etiquette is one of the most contested and passionate areas when Scouters get together. American Flag on the left or right? Do color guards salute? Come learn all there is to know about Flags and Flag ceremonies!
BS-1110	Troop Policies	Creating and sticking to Troop policies can make the difference between a smooth running program, and disinterested Scouts and angry parents. Learn how to create a policy manual and how to enforce it.
BS-1111	Boards of Review/Scoutmaster Conferences	Conducting comprehensive, supportive BORs and SMCs are critical to the Scouts' advancement. Learn how to properly plan and conduct these evaluations.
BS-112	First Class in a Year	Learn how to plan a comprehensive First Year Scout program that results in advancement, achievement, and excitement!

2009 College of Venture Scouting (Open to all Scouters)

Course Number	Course Title	Course Description	1st AM	2nd AM	Lunch	1st PM	2nd PM
VS-1101	Venturing Leader Specific Training	Required course for Venture Leaders
VS-1102	Boy Scout to Venturing	Learn how to market the Venturing program to Boy Scouts

2009 College of General Interest Scouting (Open to all Scouters)

Course Number	Course Title	Course Description	1st AM	2nd AM	Lunch	1st PM	2nd PM
GI- 1101	Outdoor Cooking	Learn to cook (and clean up) delicious meals outdoors! And you WILL be outdoors!
GI- 1102	Special Needs Scouting	Special Scouts have Special Needs- learn how to manage their experience to success!
GI- 1103	MyScouting - Online Training & more	Learn about training, tour permits and other opportunities available online.
GI- 1104	Adult Leader Recognition	What DO all those knots mean? How can I earn some? Come see how to use Knots and other methods to keep leaders feeling appreciated!
GI- 1105	Pack/Troop/Crew Websites	How to set one up, how to manage it, and keeping our Scouts safe!
GI- 1106	Legal Issues in Scouting	So what are our liabilities as a Scouter?
GI- 1107	The Scouter's Minute	Witty, pithy, and a lesson to boot! Come hear and share the magic of the Scouter's minute!
GI- 1108	Baden Powell	Learn how to incorporate a little of Baden Powell's legacy into your unit by learning more about the creator of Boy Scouting.

GI-1109	Trainer Development Conference	Learn the fundamentals of being a trainer. You will obtain the skills and materials to conduct Leader Training.
GI-1110	Commissioner Basic Training	The required training for Commissioners.
GI-1111	Geo-Scouting	Geocaching + Scouting = GeoScouting. Come learn more!					