

National Level

"A Year of Celebration"

"A Year of Celebration" is the opportunity to earn a special centennial anniversary patch and ribbons, only available over the coming year.

National Hall of Leadership

Provides a one-time opportunity for you to honor and recognize a Scouting leader who positively impacted your life, or the lives of others.

Generations Connection

We invite all Scouting families to share your stories and continue the tradition. You can share your family history, trace your Scouting ancestry, plan a family celebration, or create a group activity.

Alumni Connection

At www.BSAalumni.org, Scouting alumni can find friends and mentors, add photos and stories to the growing BSA 100th Anniversary online Scrapbook, and more!

A Shining Light

On Saturday, July 31, 2010, the Scouting family — past, present and future — will be able take part in a special nationwide broadcast, "A Shining Light Across America," from the 100th Anniversary National Jamboree in Fort AP Hill, Virginia.

Local Level

Blue Ridge Mountains Council

"Pitch for Scouting!"

We will be holding special Scout night events with each of the professional Baseball teams within our region during 2010. Each event will recognize the Centennial Anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America. Participating teams are in Danville, Martinsville, Lynchburg, Salem and Pulaski.

Eagle Club Recognition and Fundraising Dinner

The BSA 100th Anniversary will be recognized at our annual Eagle Club Recognition and Fundraising Dinner on February 18, 2010. With keynote speaker, author and Eagle Scout, Alvin Townley, we will recognize the impact of Scouting on our society.

Young Professional Reunion

Young men who have earned the rank of Eagle Scout will be gathering for a dinner and celebration of the Centennial Anniversary of Boy Scouts of America.

Centennial Christmas Tree at Hotel Roanoke

Each of the 520 units of the Blue Ridge Mountains Council have been invited and encouraged to submit one ornament from their unit, celebrating Scouting. An honorary 100th Anniversary Christmas Tree will be hosted at Hotel Roanoke during the month of December, 2009.

"Tell Us Your Scouting Stories"

Scouting stories will be collected throughout 2009-2010, through photos, letter, stories (written or recorded) newspaper clippings, etc. and Scrapbooks created with the collected items in honor of the Centennial Anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America.

Community Service Days

Community service has long been a pinnacle of the Boy Scout experience. In 2010, the Blue Ridge Mountains Council will participate in Arbor Day activities, Good Turn for America, and a Day of Service across our entire service area, in recognition of the Centennial Anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America.

Athletic Events Partnership with Virginia Tech

In recognition of the Centennial Anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America, Virginia Tech and the BRMC are offering a special ticket package for 3 Virginia Tech athletic events (Soccer, Girls Basketball, and Baseball games) at Virginia Tech, where the Centennial Anniversary of BSA and local Scouting units will be recognized.

Council Pinewood Derby and Corporate Pinewood Derby

The pinewood derby is among the most beloved and memorable activities in Scouting. In recognition of the Centennial Anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America, the Blue Ridge Mountains Council will host a Council-wide pinewood derby, and a corporate pinewood derby, inviting local businesses to compete.

Scout Sunday

Scout Sunday activities will be held in houses of worship throughout the Blue Ridge Mountains Council region on Sunday, February 7, 2010, in honor of the Centennial Anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America.

Open Door Events

The Blue Ridge Mountains Council is hosting monthly "Open Door" events, entitled "Discover the Adventure." Community business leaders who attend are treated to a tour through our headquarters, filled with displays, interactive activities, videos, and a light lunch.

Century of Values Tour

The Blue Ridge Mountains Council hosted the "A Century of Values" tour. This year-long road journey will cover 45,000 miles while making over 350 scheduled stops. The Council was presented with a special framed Centennial portrait.

Centennial Tree Plantings

During 2010, every donor of $2,010 (or more) will have a tree planted on the Blue Ridge Mountains Scout Reservation, in their honor, or in memory of a loved one.
